

JANUARY IS NATIONAL HUMAN TRAFFICKING AWARENESS MONTH

The Salvation Army's Project FIGHT has five locations in North Carolina and has received over 400 reports of human trafficking

YOU CAN HELP US FIGHT

DONATE NEEDED ITEMS TO SURVIVORS

- Hygiene items such as soap, shampoo, conditioner, toothbrush, toothpaste, hairbrush, deodorant
- Clothing such as shirts, jackets, pants, new underwear, new bras, new socks.
- Water bottles

Drop off donations at The Salvation Army
204 Haywood Street, Asheville, NC 28801.
Please specify donation is for Project FIGHT.

RAISE AWARENESS AND EDUCATE

- Request a training from our staff raise awareness in your community. For example, youth groups, employees, or other community groups.
- Shop fair trade
- Host a movie screening –Contact us for a Movie Registration Form

www.salvationarmycarolinas.org/asheville/help/projectfight/
828-253-4723

To get immediate help call the National Human Trafficking Hotline
1-888-373-7888